POETRY SCORING GUIDE

This question tests both the reading and the writing abilities of the student. Your mark must reflect both the accuracy of the reading as well as the fluency of the writing.

This guide should be adequate for most papers; however, if you come across a paper that is problematic, please double-check with the chair or sub-chair. It is essential to remember that this is a draft work; even high-level papers are likely to have the odd error — whether in analysis or writing. Such mistakes should be considered as part of the paper’s holistic mark, but should not necessarily result in an automatic drop in the score. However, a paper containing errors so distracting that they impede understanding should not be given a mark of more than three; a two would be more likely.

Please remember that references to the text may be explicit or implicit. References to lines solely by number should be ignored.

Higher papers tend to exhibit a clear statement of theme. These papers present well-integrated quotations and/or paraphrases as support. Symbols from the poem are often developed in relation to the theme.

Mid-level papers tend to list supporting details. They often include some restatement of the poems narrative.

Lower papers tend to misunderstand or misrepresent theme. References to the text are non-specific or absent.

6 Answer

The six response is superior and may draw upon any number of factors such as effectiveness of argument and level of insight. The six response exhibits an effective writing style and a sophisticated use of language. Despite its clarity and precision, this response need not be error-free.

5 Answer

The five response reflects a strong grasp of the topic and the poem. The references to the poem may be explicit or implicit and convincingly support the student's point of view. In both understanding and writing, the paper is proficient. The writing is well organized and reflects a strong command of the conventions of language.

4 Answer

The four response is competent. Understanding of the poem is accurate but rather superficial or somewhat incomplete, certainly not imaginative. References are present and suitable, but may be limited to only part of the poem. The writing conveys the student's views in an organized, straightforward fashion; errors are present but generally not distracting. Overall, the student has good control of the conventions of language.

3 Answer

The three response is barely adequate. While the student's treatment of the topic may not be wrong, it may be incomplete or so superficial as to seem inaccurate. While a central idea may not be clearly stated, it is present or implied and at least partially supported. Support may consist of long references to the poem which are not clearly connected to a central idea; alternatively, support may be very meagre and/or replaced by repetitive statements. Organization is present, but may not directly help the flow of ideas. The student demonstrates limited control over the conventions of language.

2 Answer

The two response reflects a significant misunderstanding of the poem and/or the task required by the question. The discussion may be irrelevant, seriously incomplete, or simply wrong. Errors are recurring and distracting. In some cases, the marker may sense that the student has grasped the essence of the question but has such deficiencies in language as to render the explanation seriously compromised.

1 Answer

The one response compounds the problems of the two response. These responses are often noticeably weaker; there is a serious lack of control in the writing. The marker may wonder, at times, what the writer is trying to say.

0 Answer

The zero response reflects a complete misunderstanding of the poem and/or the task, is written in verse, is off-topic, or is a restatement of the question.

*Any zero paper must be cleared by the section leader.

NR

A blank paper with no response given.

PART B: POETRY

Packing for the Future: Instructions (pages 2 and 3 in the Readings Booklet)

INSTRUCTIONS: In paragraph form and in approximately 125 to 150 words, answer question 1 in the space provided. Write in ink. The mark for your answer will be based on the appropriateness of the example(s) you use as well as the adequacy of your explanation and the quality of your written expression.

1. In paragraph form and with specific reference to “Packing for the Future: Instructions,” discuss theme in the poem. (12 marks)

Suggestions Regarding Response:

- There are different ways to prepare for the future. (various references)
- One must embrace all elements of the journey, including the time it takes. (ll. 1–10)
- The future will contain unknowns. (ll. 4–10, 28–31)
- Links to the past prepare us for the future. (ll. 11–14, 19–25)
- Both success and challenge are a part of the future. (ll. 28–31)
- Dreams need to be protected. (ll. 31–36)
- Trust people with simple values. (ll. 37–41)
- What may be valuable to one person may not be valuable to another.
- Need for self-sufficiency but also the willingness to accept help.
- We draw strength from our loved ones’ support throughout our lives.

This list is not exhaustive.

The exemplars will provide sample responses.

Marks will be awarded for content and written expression.
Refer to the Holistic Scale on pages 3 and 4 of this key.

PROSE SCORING GUIDE FOR QUESTION 2A

This guide is specific to narrative reading passages. This question tests both the reading and the writing abilities of the student. Your mark must reflect both the accuracy of the reading as well as the fluency of the writing.

This guide should be adequate for most papers; however, if you come across a paper that is problematic, please double-check with the chair or sub-chair. It is essential to remember that this is a draft work; even high-level papers are likely to have the odd error — whether in analysis or writing. Such mistakes should be considered as part of the paper’s holistic mark, but should not necessarily result in an automatic drop in the score. However, a paper containing errors so distracting that they impede understanding should not be given a mark of more than three; a two would be more likely.

Essays which are not multi-paragraph will be deducted one scale point. Please remember that references to the text may be explicit or implicit. References to paragraphs solely by number should be ignored.

Many higher papers recognize more than just the sunflowers as symbols, but many are able to discuss sunflowers exclusively in a thoughtful way. The higher papers attempt to go beyond the question and connect symbolism with other aspects of the story like theme, mood, etc.

Middle papers tend to deal with one symbol and discuss it in terms of the beginning, middle and end of the story. Most papers tend to deal only with the sunflowers as a symbol.

Low papers have very little understanding of symbolism.

Essays that are not multi-paragraph, (three or more paragraphs), or have fewer than 200 words will be deducted one scale point.

6 Answer

The six essay is superior and may draw upon any number of factors: depth of discussion, effectiveness of argument, or level of insight. This essay exhibits an effective writing style and a sophisticated use of language. Despite its clarity and precision, this essay need not be error-free.

5 Answer

The five essay reflects a strong grasp of the text. The response has a clearly stated thesis which is convincingly supported. In both understanding and writing, the essay is proficient. The essay reflects a strong command of the conventions of language.

4 Answer

The four essay is competent. References are present and suitable, but may be limited to only part of the text. The assertions in the four essay tend to be simplistic. There are no significant errors in reading. The writing is able to convey the writer's views in an organized, straightforward fashion; errors are present but generally not distracting. Overall, the student has good control of the conventions of language.

3 Answer

The three essay is barely adequate. While the student's treatment of the topic may not be wrong, it may be incomplete or so superficial as to seem inaccurate. While a central idea may not be clearly stated, it is present or implied and at least partially supported. Support may consist of long references to the prose which are not clearly connected to a central idea; alternatively, support may be very meagre and/or replaced by repetitive statements. Organization is present, but may not directly help the flow of ideas. The student demonstrates limited control over the conventions of language.

2 Answer

The two essay reflects a significant misunderstanding of the prose and/or the task required by the question. The discussion may be irrelevant, seriously incomplete, or simply wrong. Composition errors are recurring and distracting. In some cases, the marker may sense that the student has grasped the essence of the question but has such deficiencies in language as to render the explanation seriously compromised.

1 Answer

The one essay compounds the problems of the two essay. These essays are often noticeably weaker; there is a serious lack of control in the writing. The marker may wonder, at times, what the writer is trying to say.

0 Answer

The zero essay reflects a complete misunderstanding of the story and/or the task, is written in verse, is off-topic, or is a restatement of the question.

*Any zero paper must be cleared by the section leader.

PART C: PROSE

Sunflowers

(pages 4 to 6 in the Readings Booklet)

INSTRUCTIONS: Choose one of the following two topics and write a multi-paragraph essay of approximately 300 words. Write in ink. The mark for your answer will be based on the appropriateness of the example(s) you use as well as the adequacy of your explanation and the quality of your written expression. Value: 24 marks

2a. “Sunflowers” makes extensive use of symbolism. In multi-paragraph essay form and with specific reference to the story, discuss this symbolism. (24 marks)

Response:

- Sunflowers
 - respect
 - admiration
 - memory of Mr. Duncan
 - philosophy
 - his success as a teacher
 - rite of passage for the boys
 - good choices
- Seeds
 - pep talks
 - communion
 - pearls of wisdom
- School
 - foundation of boys’ lives
- Shingles
 - what they will forget
 - things that aren’t important
- Flagpole
 - honour
 - respect
 - power
- Mr. Small
 - different vision of education
- New School
 - impersonal and/or business approach to education
- Old School
 - more personal, well-rounded approach to education
 - a loss for the boys
- Resurrection
 - Mr. Duncan dies just before Easter; sunflowers symbolize resurrection of Mr. Duncan’s spirit.

Essays which are not multi-paragraph will be deducted one scale point. Please remember that references to the text may be explicit or implicit. References to paragraphs solely by number should be ignored.

Higher papers discuss similarities and differences on a deeper level. For example, some papers identify the philosophical differences of the principals. While these papers may focus on contrast, there is some implication of similarity (the thesis may be that there are more differences than similarities).

Mid-level papers tend to focus on superficial aspects of one part of the question with simplistic organization. Mid-level papers do not necessarily recognize that Mr. Small does care for his students.

Low-level papers tend to list character traits.

Essays that are not multi-paragraph, (three or more paragraphs), or have fewer than 200 words will be deducted one scale point.

2b. In multi-paragraph essay form and with specific reference to the story, compare and contrast the characters of Mr. Duncan and Mr. Small. (24 marks)

Response:

Similarities

- both are professional
- both are competent, capable
- both are intelligent, knowledgeable
- both are authority figures
- both are respected

Differences

- philosophies of education
- their relationships with the students
- their reactions to old school being torn down
- lessons they feel are valuable
- their style of administering and teaching

PART D: ORIGINAL COMPOSITION

Value: 24 marks

Suggested Time: 40 minutes

INSTRUCTIONS: Using standard English, write a coherent, unified, multi-paragraph composition of approximately 300 words on the topic below. In your composition, you may apply any effective and appropriate method of development which includes any combination of exposition, persuasion, description, and narration.

Use the page headed Organization and Planning for your rough work. Write your composition in ink on the pages headed Finished Work.

3. Write a multi-paragraph composition on the topic below. In addressing the topic, you may draw support from the experiences of others or from any aspect of your life, for example, your reading and your experiences.

Topic:

Our journey into the future begins in the past.

SCORING GUIDE FOR ORIGINAL COMPOSITION (PART D)

A composition may apply any effective and appropriate method of development which includes any combination of exposition, persuasion, description, and narration. No one form of writing should be considered superior to another. Compositions that are not multi-paragraph, (three or more paragraphs), or have fewer than 200 words will be deducted one scale point.

6

The six paper is superior and may draw upon any number of factors: maturity of style, depth of discussion, effectiveness of argument, use of literary and/or rhetorical devices, sophistication of wit, or quality of imagination. This essay exhibits an effective writing style and a sophisticated use of language. Despite its clarity and precision, this paper need not be error-free.

5

The five paper is an example of proficient writing. It displays some manipulation of language to achieve a desired effect. It exhibits a strong voice and clear sense of audience. Content is thoughtful and interesting. Errors do not detract from the marker's understanding. Vocabulary and sentence structure are varied and serve the writer's purpose successfully.

4

The four paper is clearly adequate. The prose is able to convey the writer's ideas, but without flair or strong control. Diction and syntax are usually appropriate, but lack variety. Structure, regardless of type, is predictable and relatively mechanical. The marker has a clear sense of the writer's purpose, but is not engaged by the prose. Conventions of language are usually followed, but the marker is aware of errors.

3

The three paper is barely adequate. The paper may feature underdeveloped paragraphs. Transition[s] may be weak or absent. Support for obvious and simplistic ideas is frequently in the form of listed details. Little variety in diction and sentence structure is discernible. Although the marker may be aware of some purpose, errors impede the fluency of the paper.

2

The two paper shows underdeveloped ideas that are simply and/or awkwardly expressed, as they might be in casual conversation. The paper reflects little knowledge of the conventions of language. Even though the marker can perceive meaning, the errors are frequent and rudimentary.

1

The one paper is so compromised by its deficiency of composition, content, diction, syntax, structure, voice and conventions of language as to render its meaning/purpose almost unintelligible.

0

The zero paper manifests an achievement less than outlined in scale-point one, is written in verse, is off-topic, or is a restatement of the topic.

*Any zero paper must be cleared by the section leader.

NR

A blank paper with no response given.
